The visitors started after Howell in the first inning. They smacked the ball just out of reach of fielders and ran bases like deer. They secured four runs in this inning. Rogers nipped every Pirate who tried to pilfer a base, and he made several of them hug the initial sack when he threw to Raley to catch them playing off.

The visitors secured thirteen hits off Howell, the worst beating the Pirate process.

New York, July 1.—Although no complaint has been filed as yet, it was stated to-day at National League hendquarters that President Lynch would investigate the assault made upon John McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, by Pitcher Brennan, of the Philadelphia team, after the game in Philadelphia yesterday. President Lynch was expected back in New York late this afternoon. Secretary Heydler said no mention of the trouble was made in the umpire's report of the game. While it is customary to take up such matters from formal com-plaints filed by club managers or presidents, it is nevertheless within the powers of the lengue president to investigate violation of the lengue regulations and impose punishment without waiting for complaints or
